

PRAYER

Do you want to pray? Have to pray? Have to keep trying? Are you searching for life with prayer at the center? The deep stillness within from which all else flows? Do you also long for a rich liturgical life of corporate prayer? Your search may be leading you to become a Sister of St. Margaret. Come and see.

WORK

What about work? Serving others in the spirit of Christ who came to serve and not to be served. Ministry. Pastoral care. Retreat and prison work. Education. Other ministries yet to be called forth by needs and gifts. The harvest is rich but the laborers are few. Do you want to join hands in service with a company of dedicated women? Your search may be leading you to become a Sister of St. Margaret. Come and see.

COMMUNITY

And then there is community. Living together as Sisters in Christ in lifelong commitment to the Lord. Mutual support. Plenty of pain, and self-sacrifice, too. And deepest in it all, joy. Prayer. Work. Community. Is your search leading you to become a Sister of St. Margaret? It was Jesus who said to those who first sought him, "Come and see."

Are you a single woman between the ages of 21 and 45? Are you ready to spend a weekend exploring this dynamic life? We welcome women of faith, lay or ordained, who are searching for life in community with prayer at its center. Vocations Weekends are held annually on Columbus Day weekend (Friday to Sunday) and are offered at no cost. Room and board for the weekend are included. Participants are responsible for transportation to and from the convent. If you are unable to attend that weekend, feel free to contact us; we would be happy to arrange for a visit at a more mutually convenient time. This weekend is appropriate for women at all stages of exploration. Some are simply curious, some may have felt a sense of "call" to this life, and some may be drawn to something more. All are welcome. Visit our website at www.ssbos.org for the dates of our next Vocations Weekend, to download an application, or just to get more information about the Society. We look forward to meeting you!

The Society of St. Margaret is a religious community of women in the Episcopal Church. Together we seek to find Jesus present in worship, in the common life, and in ministries which concentrate on responding to the needs of the times.
